Responses to evaluation question: "The thing I liked best about the workshop . . ."

- personal experiences shared - meaningful.
- fun - lively but realistic - not hyper/phony honest-realistic-doable, genuine Thank you! I needed this today.
- Drawing - it's been a long time since I've created something about Me!
- Fun and easy attitude!!
- Positivity; Great research to back up things - better than Oprah!
- very positive Patrice sharing her experiences
- Patrice is very inspirational!
- Helped me realize and organize my wishes.
- Great upbeat presentation! Good content.
- Enjoyed Patrice enthusiasm, her positive approach! You can feel her happiness!
- The great the energy in the room; the predictability exercise - all of these things were great. Patrice was fabulous! Thank you!
- Forgot about other things once I sat down and relaxed. Thank you.
- Patrice's belief in happiness and how people can take control of their own happiness.
- . . . how much motivation she is able to exude to a person. You helped me follow my dream.
- . . . explained everything so well and expanded everything. She made it fun & entertaining. Great job. I will be using the things I learned today to stay positive.

Email responses in the days following event:

- Thank you for the wonderful event last Thursday. I absolutely loved Patrice's stance on life...it was refreshing to hear. I even went out and bought myself some drawing paper and markers!
- Had a great time last night and thank you for hosting this event. Patrice sure hit on some areas to think about and make some changes in mind programming.
- Thank you for an inspiring evening last night - I apologize for not thanking you personally as I had to "rush" home having not been there since 8 am in the morning. . . Thanks again - personally this was the nudge I need to work with my husband on the business we want to start - I'll send you an invitation to the open house! Nina Holliday, Director Marketing
